Nellwyn Coleman

'Miss FBLA' In Regional Contest.

Nellwyn Coleman, "Miss FBLA" of Appomattox County, is runner-up in regional competition for the title "Miss FBLA" as a result of the recent district meeting of Future Business Leaders of America, including the Appomattox County High School chapter.

Nellwyn, a senior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abbitt Coleman, plans to pursue a business career following high school graduation. The competition for the "Miss FBLA" title, on the district level, involves both appearance, personality and a written test and interview, according to Nellwyn. The written test involved questions about grammar, math, business terms and procedures. Appomattox is ably represented by a senior with obvious good looks and intellectual skill.
